

UKSA Trip

Name: ARTHUR HORTON

Age:

Date of joining The AHOY:

Couse attended @ UKSA:

Date of UKSA Trip:

Day One

What I did: I learnt how to throw a line

Who I worked with: Hamletton, Katy, Ella from

What I learnt: how to winch

Photos taken: Unfortunately I was unable to take photos due to the desiperance of my phone

Day Two

What I did: did more rigging

Who I worked with: Hamletton

What I learnt: how to eye the sail to the boom with sail ties

Photos taken

Day Three

What I did: did a man over board procedure

Who I worked with: Katie, Ella, Hamilton

What I learnt: how to make a Mayday call.

Photos taken: found my phone and took pictures

Day Four

What I did: Helmed

Who I worked with: Katy, Ella, Hamilton

What I learnt: ~~learned about the needles~~ but how to unjerk a jib on a yacht

Photos taken: Took more pictures

Day Five

What I did: follow cardinal marks

Who I worked with: Hamilton, ella, Katy

What I learnt: how to follow a destination

Photos taken: took more pictures

Summary of the Trip

Best part: on the first day there was lots of wind so we went fast

What I learnt: how to be a responsible crew

How I'll use my new skills: ~~ever~~ carry them out on a mission

My special message to the Royal Thames Yacht Club for funding my trip: thank you so much for giving me the opportunity for something that I could never afford.

Notes:

Shipmates – please complete full details of every day of your trip as your diary and photos will be sent to the funder, Royal Thames Yacht Club. This will help The AHOY Centre to secure more funding to give more Shipmates this great opportunity.

Thank You and enjoy your trip!